

Privacy Policy

The Thomas Milo Foundation is committed to respecting and protecting your personal data. This notice sets out how we collect, use and safeguard the information we hold about you, in line with the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018.

What information we collect, use, and why

We collect or use the following information to keep you updated on events, projects, news and activities related to the running of the Foundation:

- Names and contact details
- Any options selected
- The content of any message sent to The Thomas Milo Foundation

We do not collect any information beyond what you voluntarily provide.

Lawful bases and data protection rights

Under UK data protection law, we must have a “lawful basis” for collecting and using your personal information. There is a list of possible lawful bases in the UK GDPR. You can find out more about lawful bases on the ICO’s website.

You have the right to:

- Access the personal data we hold about you
- Request correction of inaccurate data
- Request deletion of your data
- Withdraw your consent at any time
- Submit a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) if you believe your data has been mishandled

To exercise any of these rights, please contact us at enquiries@thomasmilofoundation.org.uk

Our lawful bases for the collection and use of your data

Our lawful bases for collecting or using personal information is to keep you updated on events, projects, news, appeals and other fundraising relevant to the Thomas Milo Foundation are:

- Consent - we have permission from you after we gave you all the relevant information. All of your data protection rights may apply, except the right to object. To be clear, you do have the right to withdraw your consent at any time.
- Legitimate interests – we’re collecting or using your information because it benefits you, our organisation or someone else, without causing an undue risk of harm to anyone. All of your data protection rights may apply, except the right to portability. Our legitimate interest is:
 - To enable The Thomas Milo Foundation to continue to send you relevant updates and information about the organisation

How long we keep information

We retain your personal data only for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was collected. If you withdraw your consent, we will delete your data promptly unless we are required by law to retain it.
